

Tribal Rights and Fish Consumption Workshop: Issues and Opportunities for the Pacific Northwest

South Campus Center
University of Washington
Seattle, WA
August 12-13, 2009

AGENDA

DAY 1: August 12, 2009

		Room
	8:00am-8:30am Registration, Coffee and Refreshments	Foyer/316
	8:30am-8:40am Welcome and Workshop Overview Elaine M. Faustman - University of Washington	316
	8:40am-9:00am Keynote Address Lenny Dixon - Tulalip Tribe: "Tribal Rights and Fish Consumption: A Tribal Perspective"	316
ORAL PRESENTATIONS: MODULES 1-5	9:00am-9:50am Oral Presentations I: Modules 1-2 - Overview and Charge to the Breakout Sessions	316
	9:00-9:25 Module 1: The Legal Framework: Obligations and Opportunities Catherine O'Neill - Seattle University	316
	9:25-9:50 Module 2: Pacific Northwest Exposure Within a Tribal Context Barbara Harper - Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation (CTUIR); Oregon State University	316
	9:50am-10:10am Break	316
	10:10am-11:25am Oral Presentations II: Modules 3-5 - Overview and Charge to the Breakout Sessions	316
	10:10-10:35 Module 3: Oregon Department of Environmental Quality Fish Consumption Rate Project Patricia Cirone - University of Washington	316
	10:35-11:00 Module 4: Building the Case of Importance of Fish Consumption and Tribal Health Elaine M. Faustman - University of Washington	316
	11:00-11:25 Module 5: Fish Consumption Rate Standards and Protection of Human Health Jamie Donatuto - Office of Planning, Swinomish Indian Tribal Community	316
	11:25am-12:40pm Lunch	254

DAY 1: August 12, 2009 continued

		Room
CONCURRENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS: MODULES 1 & 2	12:40pm-2:10pm	Concurrent Breakout Sessions I: Modules 1 &amp; 2	316/354
	12:40-2:10	Module 1: The Legal Framework: Obligations and Opportunities Chair: Catherine O'Neill - Seattle University Speaker 1: Mason Morisset - Morisset, Schlosser &amp; Jozwiak Attorneys at Law: "Tribal Rights and Fish Consumption"	354
	12:40-2:10	Module 2: Pacific Northwest Exposure Within a Tribal Context Chair: Barbara Harper - Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation (CTUIR); Oregon State University Speaker 1: Lon Kissinger - U.S. EPA Region 10: "Current Regional and National Fish Consumption Rates" Speaker 2: Jamie Donatuto - Office of Planning, Swinomish Indian Tribal Community: "More than 'Dose' Leads to Disease: Evaluating Risks and Impacts to Socio-Cultural Aspects of Tribal Health"	316
	2:10pm-2:30pm	Break - Coffee and Refreshments	316
CONCURRENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS: MODULES 3 & 4	2:30pm-4:00pm	Concurrent Breakout Sessions II: Modules 3 &amp; 4	316/354
	2:30-4:00	Module 3: Oregon Department of Environmental Quality Fish Consumption Rate Project Chair: Patricia Cirone - University of Washington, and Dave McBride - Washington State Department of Health Speaker 1: Kathleen Feehan - Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation: "Oregon Fish Consumption Rate Increase: Lessons Learned" Speaker 2: Melinda McCoy - U.S. EPA Region 10: "Status Update on ODEQ Fish Consumption Rate Project" Speaker 3: Rawlin Richardson - Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Indian Reservation of Oregon: "Development of a Fish Consumption Rate (FCR) for the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs (CTWS)"	354
	2:30-4:00	Module 4: Building the Case of Importance of Fish Consumption and Tribal Health Chair: Elaine M. Faustman - University of Washington Speaker 1: Larry Dunn - Lower Elwha Klallam Tribe: "Elwha Klallam Fish Consumption and its Health Effects" Speaker 2: Frank James- Nooksack Tribe: "Lessons Learned in the Pacific Northwest"	316
	4:00pm-4:15pm	Break
	4:15pm-5:15pm	Poster Reception with Hors D'oeuvres	316/Lobby

DAY 2: August 13, 2009

	8:00am-8:30am	Registration, Coffee and Refreshments	Foyer/316
LESSONS LEARNED: MODULES 1-4	8:30am-9:40am	Lessons Learned from Day 1 Breakout Sessions: Modules 1-4	316
	8:30-8:40	Overview of Lessons Learned Patricia Cirone - University of Washington
	8:40-8:55	Module 1: The Legal Framework: Obligations and Opportunities	316
	8:55-9:10	Module 2: Pacific Northwest Exposure Within a Tribal Context	316
	9:10-9:25	Module 3: Oregon Department of Environmental Quality Fish Consumption Rate Project	316
	9:25-9:40	Module 4: Building the Case of Importance of Fish Consumption and Tribal Health	316
	9:40am-9:55am	Break	316
BREAKOUT SESSION: MODULE 5	9:55am-11:25	Breakout Session III: Module 5	316
	9:55-11:25	Module 5: Fish Consumption Rate Standards and Protection of Human Health Chair: Jamie Donatuto - Office of Planning, Swinomish Indian Tribal Community  Speaker 1: James West - Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife: "Persistent Bioaccumulative Toxics (PBTs) in Pacific Salmon" Speaker 2: Craig McCormack - Washington State Department of Ecology: "Establishing a MTCA Site-Specific Fish Consumption Rate Using EPA Region 10 Decision Making Framework" Speaker 3: Jeremy Freimund - Lummi Natural Resources Department, Lummi Tribe: "Lummi Nation Surface Water Quality Program and Regulating Water Quality to Protect Tribal Foods" Speaker 4: Lon Kissinger - U.S. EPA Region 10: "EPA Policy on the Use of Seafood Consumption Rates in the Cleanup and Water Programs"	316
	11:25am-11:40am	Lessons Learned from Day 2 Breakout Session: Modules 5	316
	11:25-11:40	Module 5: Fish Consumption Rate Standards and Protection of Human Health	316
	11:40am-12:40pm	Networking Lunch - Meeting and Developing Regional Contacts	254
PANEL DISCUSSION	12:40pm - 1:50pm	Panel Discussion: Fish Consumption Rates and Regulatory Decision Making Within the State of Washington Chair: Anna Harding- Oregon State University Panelist 1: Cheryl Niemi - Washington State Department of Ecology: "Addressing Ecology's triennial review of the Water Quality Standards, and opportunities to discuss fish consumption rates" Panelist 2: Martha Hankins - Washington State Department of Ecology: "Updating Washington's Model Toxics Control Act Cleanup Regulation, and looking at fish consumption rates as part of this process" Panelist 3: Dave Fuller - Port Gamble S'Klallam Tribe: "History of a tribe's decision in fish consumption and water quality standards for toxic cleanup and toxic reservation habitat protection" Panelist 4: Sally Brough - U.S. EPA Region 10: "Summarizing current State and Tribe fish consumption rates, activity in the Water Quality Standards arena, and EPA priorities regarding fish consumption rates"	316
	1:50pm-2:00pm	Closing: Elaine M. Faustman - University of Washington	316